Our Middlebury Video Project Submission Form

The "Our Middlebury" video project aims to tell BIPOC stories-- OUR stories-- of experiences with Middlebury Public Safety and/or the Middlebury Police Department where we have felt marginalized by an encounter. If you want to participate in this video project in collaboration with Cops Off Campus, please fill out the form below.

Your answer

For this project, you may either submit a story and have one of our team members read it for you (anonymously or with a name) or you can create a video of you telling the story yourself. Please select which format you choose below. *

- ○ I will create a video for my own story
- ○ I would like someone to read my story for me with identifying information
- ○ I would like someone to read my story for me anonymously

If you would chose one of the first two options of being identified, please write how you would like to be identified here. Responses will only be edited for obvious errors.

Your answer

Below is the link to upload your story. Please either upload your video (see instructions below) or a document with your story to the Google Drive. You are also welcome to upload any photos or videos related to the incident if you would like them to supplement your story. Name all files relevant to you with your Middlebury email without the @middebury.edu part.

VIDEO SUBMISSION STYLE GUIDE! Please read if you are recording your own video.

If you are recording your own video, please try your best to follow these suggestions put forth by our editor:

1. High quality video
2. Put yourself in center frame in a close up
3. Use natural light if possible. If not, use a desk lamp and try to avoid overhead lighting.
4. Situate yourself in front of a backdrop that represents you! Maybe with posters, photos, trophies-- just avoid windows or blank backgrounds.
5. Remember to look directly into the camera and not your screen.

If any of these guidelines are not possible, don't worry! Just try your best to follow them so we can maintain consistency in the final video. These instructions are also in the google drive linked above. We appreciate you!
